Revitalizing Downtown

The trend is in improving the appearance and economic stability of historic downtown business districts. In many communities, the 'Downtown' is in a state of decline. Effective solutions to the problems of deteriorating building stock, loss of business, and the waning economic strength of downtown are vital to the survival of a city. Join us in a discussion with cities as they share their 'best practices' tips to a successful 'downtown'.

Featured Speakers are:

Wayne Carter, Executive Director, Mainstreet DeLand Association

Frank Hale, Executive Director, Sanford Regional Chamber of Commerce

Gus Gianikas, City of Mount Dora Asst. Director of Planning & Development
